

Jonathan's Impact Newsletter – February 2012

Welcome Baby Kuzileza!

We are delighted to announce our newest addition to the Chilleleko Home, Kuzileza, pictured with Auntie Joanna, the housemother at the home. Kuzileza is a Tonga word meaning “God Knows.” Now age one, Kuzileza was orphaned while his mother was giving birth. We have already been called by God, in accepting Kuzileza, to abandon our original plan for an all-girl home! Now Kuzileza will be adjusting to having two older sisters, Ado and Maybe, mothering him.

Mission Trip 2012

Our Mission Trip for 2012 has been scheduled for June 29th – July 7th, with the option to extend the trip until July 10th. We will be lodging at the Mbuya Nehanda Children's Home (a.k.a. Melfort Orphanage), with the lofty goals of repairing the sewerage system so that the toilets are functional, giving the bathroom a facelift, showing the Jesus film in Shona, and just hanging out with the children. We also will visit the Chilleleko Home, which is supported by Jonathan's Impact. Home building professionals are needed, but those without these skills are also wanted and needed. The approximate cost of the trip is about $2,000. Come here more details at our first mission trip meeting, scheduled at Hope Church on Sunday, February 26th at 4 pm. For more information, you may also email us at dileo_cassy@bellsouth.net or kerbear92@hotmail.com.

Melfort Boys Clowning Around

Jonathan's Impact Newsletter – February 2012

Yuck!!! Get your gloves on!